Foreword

As the Colonial Trail winds through our county, so has our high school led us through the winding paths of education and many fond memories.

Though we, the Class of 1960, are only a few inconspicuous individuals at present, we have learned much here at Surry County High School. We intend to put our increased knowledge to valuable use for the future destiny of lives and may we contribute some good deed for mankind in our world of today.

Today an education is most essential, and we are indebted to the guidance and faithfulness of our teachers and principal here for our twelve school years.

I hope that this 1960 Colonial Trail will bring pleasure and fond remembrances to you and the Class of '60.

THE EDITOR
William Hargrave

Dedication

To show our gratitude, love, and respect, we, the Class of 1960, do dedicate this, our 1960 Colonial Trail, to you, Mrs. Mitchell, our sponsor, and Mr. Gordon, our homeroom teacher.

Our journey along the Colonial Trail would have been even harder if it had not been for your guidance, support, and services, for our lives have certainly been enriched by your guidance.

Principal's Message

Word of the Principal

*Surry County High School
Surry, Virginia*

To the graduates of 1960

Life today offers a challenge to all of us. It is a challenge that is more demanding than that of a few years ago. This is the beginning of man's expansion into space. Do not be frightened by the tasks before you. As you leave Surry High, may you take with you:

Courage to meet the demands of the day; to sacrifice without complaint; to endure misfortune bravely and to preserve your sense of values.

An abiding sense of loyalty to home, country and to God; to the concepts of liberty and justice on which this country was founded and to the ideals of your youth.

A spirit of helpfulness to serve your fellowman; with the knowledge of having given your best. A belief in the triumph of right over wrong and of a divine Providence that guides us all.

Sincerely

Robert H. Moore

Hail to thee, dear Surry High School,
Stately and so fair,
If you look the whole world over,
None to thee compare!

Through the ages, we will cherish,
And we'll pledge anew,
Honor, faith, and deep devotion,
Surry High to you!

Remember the week last summer
 when you, Pat, Rosemary,
 and I stayed in Walnut Bay. Do you remember the week we stayed in the tent. Debbie was the life of the party. I hope we can do it again sometime. Remember always the week we skipped phys. Ed. and had to stay in. We really deserve a day home Hope to see a lot of you this summer (now that we have our driver's license).
 Love ya!
